Crawford & Company appoints Paul Bowyer
as General Property Claims Director

London – Crawford & Company is delighted to announce the appointment of Paul Bowyer as its new General Property Claims Director, effective 20 June.

Reporting to Greg Gladwell, UK & Ireland CEO, Paul joins from GAB Robins, where he was Director of Claims Management Services. Paul brings a wealth of experience to Crawford, where he will be responsible for providing its market-leading claims services to insurers, brokers and corporate clients.

A well-known figure in claims, broking and insurer markets, Paul has held many senior roles with companies across the industry, delivering growth and first-class service.

“Paul’s appointment is excellent news for Crawford and its clients,” Greg said. “He is an outstanding business leader, with the operational and management skills required to bring real value to the role of General Property Claims Director. His perspective on the industry, having worked in senior positions within the adjusting, broking and insurer markets, is also advantageous.”

“It’s a great pleasure to be joining the management team at Crawford in the UK,” said Paul. “The business is pre-eminent in its field and I’m looking forward to working with my new colleagues to help implement the company’s strategy in order to deliver growth and enhance service at every level.”
