Crawford & Company appoints
Real Estate Development Manager

Julian Strutt recruited to develop real estate claims service

London – Crawford & Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Julian Strutt as the new Real Estate Development Manager focusing on the specific needs of this distinct sector of the UK market. Julian was previously Property Owners Development Manager for AXA.

Greg Gladwell, Chief Executive Officer, Crawford said “Julian’s experience and enthusiasm will be an asset as we look to build a faster and more collaborative real estate claims service for insurers, brokers and corporates that delivers real business growth both in the UK and across Europe.”

Greg continued, “Julian will be responsible for building and maintaining relationships with brokers and clients to develop services specific to the needs of the real estate insurance market. These services will include claims fulfilment from third party administration services, site investigation, claim negotiation together with pre-claim services utilising Crawford’s specialist surveying services.”

Julian Strutt said, “I am excited about this new challenge as Crawford has achieved impressive success through its ability to recognise trends in the marketplace and to create high quality, innovative solutions to support its many insurer, broker and corporate clients in the UK.”
