Crawford & Company appoints Dr. Leo Chen as General Manager for Taiwan Office

Three New Construction Adjusters also join Taipei Office

Singapore – Crawford & Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Leo Chen as General Manager at its Taipei office. Dr. Chen, who will report to the Greater China General Manager, Mike Campbell-Pitt and the Asia Pacific CEO Richard Martin, will lead Crawford’s growth in Taiwan and boost Crawford’s expertise within the Greater China region.

Dr. Chen, who holds a BSc in Civil Engineering and a Doctorate in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, is an experienced adjuster in the Taiwan market, having worked in the industry for the past 17 years. Prior to this he held senior positions as an engineer with the Formosa Plastics Group and a local engineering contractor.

“Leo is an excellent addition to the senior management team within the Greater China region,” said Richard Martin, CEO Asia Pacific at Crawford. “Leo brings to Crawford a wealth of experience in handling large complex engineering losses in Taiwan. In addition to Leo’s appointment, we are also pleased to welcome three new construction adjusters to our Taipei office, Mr. Zacky Cheng, Eric Wang and Nash Wang. All three have worked alongside Leo for a number of years and together will add greater depth to our Construction and Engineering capabilities in Taiwan.”

“Taiwan is an important market to Crawford and one of the growth points within the Greater China Region” said Campbell-Pitt. “We are very pleased to welcome Leo and the team and to be expanding our servicing capabilities within Taiwan.”
