FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CRAWFORD & COMPANY® APPOINTS GEOFF PIGGOT NEW CEO FOR GLOBAL TECHNICAL SERVICES™ DIVISION

LONDON (Jan. 17, 2017) – Crawford Global Technical Services® (GTS™) has named Geoff Piggot its new chief executive officer. The appointment reflects Crawford & Company®'s commitment to and investment in the growth of Crawford GTS®.

Piggot joins GTS™ from Gen Re and replaces Mike Reeves. Reeves retired after 40 years of distinguished service, during which time he was key in the formation of GTS.

Reporting to Crawford®'s International Operations CEO Ian Muress, and based in London, Piggot will lead an established global brand with a highly skilled workforce comprising several hundred adjusters, engineers and forensic accountants, many of whom are dual-qualified. Piggott's duties include increasing global GTS revenue and expanding its breadth of services.

“Crawford GTS is recognised as the market's leading specialist technical claims solution, and Geoff is fully capable of leading our global network,” Muress said. “He joins Crawford at a time when we are making unparalleled investment in our consulting business to ensure the company continues to lead the claims industry.

“Geoff's impeccable credentials include being a former board director at one of the world's largest global reinsurance corporations, where he has carried out claims leadership roles for 18 years. He has extensive experience supporting global property, marine and facultative reinsurance claims functions and, as such, can provide a unique customer perspective our clients will appreciate.”

Crawford GTS serves reinsurers, the corporate market, insurers' major loss/catastrophe divisions and the London Market and Lloyd's syndicates. Crawford GTS was created in 2009 to deliver a targeted solution for clients seeking a unified major loss handling service. Crawford GTS adjusters respond anywhere in the world and have attended every claim situation imaginable, including the Japanese earthquake and Tsunami of 2011, as well as Hurricane Matthew and the New Zealand earthquake in 2016.

"I am excited to join Crawford GTS," Piggot said. "The business is known for employing the best people and deploying them worldwide. I look forward to building on the work of Mike Reeves and the Crawford GTS team and continuing this brand's development as the pinnacle of global insurance claims management."

Piggot's appointment also marks the end of an era. "As our new CEO joins the business, I would like to thank Mike Reeves for his Crawford service," Mures said. "GTS has been in safe hands during his tenure and is now placed to move to the next level under Geoff's leadership. Mike will be missed not only for his professionalism, but as a charming and popular individual."
