Mr. Harsha V. Agadi, president and chief executive officer of Crawford & Company, stated, “Overall, I am pleased with our results this quarter as we delivered 19% operating earnings growth driven by strength in our U.S. Services segment which continued to benefit from the recent CAT activity, our International segment which experienced strong operating margin expansion, and Broadspire which continued to deliver consistent revenue and earnings growth. I am particularly proud that all three of these divisions ended the year with operating margins in excess of 10% which has been management’s medium term goal. The one challenge to note in the quarter was our Garden City Group segment which continues to experience a difficult market backdrop combined with the expected wind down of a large project that contributed to the segment’s loss. As a result, we recorded a non-cash $19.6 million goodwill impairment charge in the quarter related to the Garden City Group segment. This charge had no impact on our Credit Agreement, liquidity, or operating results. On a non-GAAP basis before goodwill impairment charges, restructuring and special charges, and the impact of U.S. tax reform, our diluted earnings per share for CRD-B surged 87% in the 2017 fourth quarter as compared to the 2016 fourth quarter, aided by the one-time tax benefit of $0.05 per share we referred to last quarter.

“Our goal is to build upon the Company’s strong momentum as we focus on delivering consistent revenue growth. We have grown non-GAAP CRD-B diluted earnings per share at a 39% compounded annual rate over the last two years, largely driven by expense reduction and improved operational efficiencies. We now must position Crawford to deliver sustained, long-term revenue growth. To accomplish this, effective with the 2018 first quarter we have made the strategic decision to reorganize the Company into a global service line reporting structure that will better enable our sales teams to increase market share and grow the company. These three operating segments will be known as: Crawford Claims Solutions which is comprised of our global insurance claims business, Crawford TPA Solutions - Broadspire, which includes our global Broadspire business, and Crawford Specialty Solutions which contains Contractor Connection, Garden City Group and our Global Technical Services businesses. The Company will be providing restated historical quarterly results in the new operating segment format prior to filing its first quarter 2018 Form 10-Q.

Mr. Agadi concluded, “Through the third and fourth quarters, we invested heavily in our business to support our clients as they managed through an unprecedented level of CAT activity. We believe this investment has differentiated Crawford in the market and positions the Company, along with our pending business segment realignment, to increase our market share and grow revenues. Looking forward, our goal is to deliver 5% annual revenue growth and 15% annual earnings growth over the longer term. While our 2018 results will be impacted by the expected challenges in our Garden City Group business, we are confident in our longer term outlook of delivering sustained growth.”

Garden City Group

Operating losses were $(2.1) million in the 2017 fourth quarter compared with operating earnings of $1.2 million in the 2016 period. Unallocated Corporate and Shared Costs and Credits, Net

Unallocated corporate costs, net were $9.2 million in the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with $6.5 million in the same period of 2016. The increased costs for the fourth quarter of 2017 were due to increases in benefit costs and professional fees, partially offset by lower defined benefit pension expense.

Unallocated corporate costs, net were $15.6 million in 2017, compared with $24.0 million in 2016. The decreased costs in 2017 were due to a reduction in defined benefit pension expense, self insured expenses and professional fees.

Goodwill Impairment Charges

The Company recognized goodwill impairment charges for the entire goodwill allocated to its Garden City Group reporting unit of $19.6 million in the fourth quarter 2017. This noncash goodwill impairment charge is not reflected in segment operating earnings. The impairment charge did not affect the Company's liquidity and had no effect on the Company's compliance with the financial covenants under its Credit Facility.

Restructuring and Special Charges

The Company recorded restructuring and special charges of $3.3 million and $2.1 million in the 2017 and 2016 fourth quarters, respectively. For the full year, the Company recorded restructuring costs of $12.1 million in 2017 as compared to $9.5 million in 2016. Restructuring costs were comprised of costs related to the establishment and phase in of the Company's Global Business Services Center in the Philippines and Global Technology Services Center in India, restructuring and integration costs related to reductions of administrative costs and consolidation of management layers in certain operations, and other restructuring charges for asset impairments and lease termination costs.

Impact of U.S. Tax Reform

During the 2017 fourth quarter the Company recorded the estimated impact associated with the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the “Tax Act”) of $3.8 million, or $0.07 per share, primarily related to the preliminary calculation of the transition tax and remeasurement of deferred tax balances. The Company does not anticipate any cash taxes to be paid associated with the transition tax. In accordance with Staff accounting Bulletin No. 118, the estimated 2017 impact of the Tax Act enactment is subject to adjustment throughout 2018 as the Company completes its calculations and files its 2017 tax returns.

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow

The Company’s consolidated cash and cash equivalents position as of December 31, 2017 totaled $54.0 million, compared with $81.6 million at December 31, 2016.

The Company’s operations provided $40.8 million of cash during the 2017 period, compared with cash provided of $98.9 million in the 2016 period. The decrease in cash provided in operating activities in the year ended December 31, 2017 compared with the prior year was primarily due to a decrease in accrued compensation, accounts payable and pension liabilities, and increases in receivables, tax and self insurance payments. During the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company settled a cross currency swap for $4.1 million, increasing cash from operations for that period.

2018 Guidance

Crawford & Company is providing initial guidance for 2018 as follows:

- Consolidated revenues before reimbursements between $1.12 and $1.14 billion;
- Net income attributable to shareholders of Crawford & Company between $43.0 and $48.0 million, or $0.78 to $0.88 diluted earnings per CRD-A share, and $0.71 to $0.81 diluted earnings per CRD-B share;
- Consolidated operating earnings between $85.0 and $95.0 million;
- Consolidated adjusted EBITDA between $127.0 and $137.0 million.

The Company does not anticipate any restructuring and special charges in 2018.

The Company’s 2018 guidance assumes a 31.7% effective tax rate which incorporates the key provisions of U.S. Tax Reform. However, this estimated effective tax rate does not include any subsequent adjustment to the provisional estimate of the 2017 impact referred to above.

To a significant extent, Crawford’s business depends on case volumes. The Company cannot predict the future trend of case volumes for a number of reasons, including the fact that the frequency and severity of weather-related claims and the occurrence of natural and man-made disasters, which are a significant source of claims and revenue for the Company, are generally not subject to accurate forecasting.

Non-GAAP Presentation

In the normal course of business, our operating segments incur certain out-of-pocket expenses that are thereafter reimbursed by our clients. Under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), these out-of-pocket expenses and associated reimbursements are required to be included when reporting expenses and revenues, respectively, in our consolidated results of operations. In the foregoing discussion and analysis of segment results of operations, we do not include a gross up of segment expenses and revenues for these pass-through reimbursed expenses. The amounts of reimbursed expenses and related revenues offset each other in our results of operations with no impact to our net income or operating earnings. A reconciliation of revenues before reimbursements to consolidated revenues determined in accordance with GAAP is self-evident from the face of the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Operating earnings is the primary financial performance measure used by our senior management and chief operating decision maker ("CODM") to evaluate the financial performance of our Company and operating segments, and make resource allocation and certain compensation decisions. Unlike net income, segment operating earnings is not a standard performance measure found in GAAP. We believe this measure is useful to others in that it allows them to evaluate segment and consolidated operating performance using the same criteria used by our senior management and CODM. Consolidated operating earnings represent segment earnings including certain unallocated corporate and shared costs and credits, but before net corporate interest expense, stock option expense, amortization of customer-relationship intangible assets, goodwill impairment charges, restructuring and special charges, income taxes, and net income or loss attributable to noncontrolling interests. The reconciliation of operating earnings to net income attributable to shareholders of the Company on a GAAP basis is presented below.

Adjusted EBITDA is not a term defined by GAAP and as a result our measure of adjusted EBITDA might not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies. However, adjusted EBITDA is used by management to evaluate, assess and benchmark our operational results. The Company believes that adjusted EBITDA is relevant and useful information widely used by analysts, investors and other interested parties. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income attributable to shareholders of the Company with adjustments for depreciation and amortization, net corporate interest expense, income taxes, restructuring and special charges, and stock-based compensation expense.

Unallocated corporate and shared costs and credits include expenses and credits related to our chief executive officer and Board of Directors, certain provisions for bad debt allowances or subsequent recoveries such as those related to bankrupt clients, defined benefit pension costs or credits for our frozen U.S. pension plan, certain unallocated professional fees, and certain self-insurance costs and recoveries that are not allocated to our individual operating segments. Restructuring and special charges are non-core items not directly related to our normal business operations, or our future performance.

Income taxes, net corporate interest expense, stock option expense, and amortization of customer-relationship intangible assets are recurring components of our net income, but they are not considered part of our segment operating earnings because they are managed on a corporate-wide basis. Income taxes are calculated for the Company on a consolidated basis based on statutory rates in effect in the various jurisdictions in which we provide services, and vary significantly by jurisdiction. Net corporate interest expense results from capital structure decisions made by senior management and the Board of Directors, affecting the Company as a whole. Stock option expense represents the non-cash costs generally related to stock options and employee stock purchase plan expenses which are not allocated to our operating segments. Amortization expense is a non-cash expense for finite-lived customer-relationship and trade name intangible assets acquired in business combinations. None of these costs relate directly to the performance of our services or operating activities and, therefore, are excluded from segment operating earnings in order to better assess the results of each segment's operating activities on a consistent basis.

Income taxes are calculated for the non-GAAP presentation of net income before restructuring and special charges based on statutory rates in effect in the various jurisdictions in which charges exist, and vary by jurisdiction.

Following is a reconciliation of segment and consolidated operating earnings to net income attributable to shareholders of Crawford & Company on a GAAP basis. The reconciliation of 2018 guidance is to the midpoint of the guidance range.
